HOW DO YOU EAT SOUP?

Some of a certain class of young New Yorkers are awfully proud of President Arthur. I was saying to one of them how the President's grand manner charmed everyone. Then he gave me a very knowing look and said:

"Oh, yes; he knows how to eat soup."

"Undoubtedly, and a great many very common place people know how to do likewise—myself for instance."

"How do you eat it, pray?"

"The regular regulation way, to be sure, as laid down in all the standard works on etiquette. I take it from the point of the spoon, and no matter how much I want more, never ask for the second plate."

"You're out of time; go eat soup with the mummies."

"A new departure in soup eating—and I with out the pale! For goodness sake, post me."

"Listen to your preceptor: The newest agony in soup, the esthetic, the intense manner of imbibing it, is to scoop it up with the spoon away from you and take it from the edge of the spoon, making a graceful movement from the soup to your mouth."

Send the news circling through space. It is not every hoodlum that knows how to eat soup.—Detroit Free Press.

When I was a young man I spent several years in the South, residing for a while at Port Gibson on the Mississippi river. A great deal of litigation was going on there about that time, and it was not an easy matter to obtain a jury. One day I was summoned to act in that capacity, and repaired to Court to get excused. On my name being called I informed his Honor the Judge that I was not a freeholder, and therefore not qualified to serve. "I am stopping for the time being at this place," "You board at the hotel, I presume?" "I take my meals there, but have rooms in another part of the town where I lodge." "So you keep bachelor's hall?" "Yes, sir." "How long have you lived in that manner?" "About six months." "I think you are qualified," gravely remarked the Judge, "for I have never known a man to keep bachelor's hall the length of time you name who had not dirt enough in his room to make him a freeholder. The Court does not excuse you."—Tioga Agitator.

WHY SHE WEPT NOT.

"I saw you at the funeral the other day," said one lady to another.

"Yes. I saw you, too."

"How natural the corpse looked!"

"Just like marble."

"I never heard a more affecting funeral sermon, did you?"

"Never. And just think of it, when everybody was crying, I reached for my handkerchief and found, to my horror, that it was a red one I had in my pocket."

"Goodness! What did you do?"

"Why, I didn't cry. How could I, when everybody else in the church was using white!"

THE EVILS OF PAINTING And their Remedy.

"It has been said with much truth, too, that house painting might, with study and acquirement of taste, resume its rank as a liberal art."—Painters' Manual.

Believing the above to be true, A. B. KERR has now re-organized his system of working the business in Honolulu. In the first place he has secured the services of that celebrated artist, Mr. MAX KORN, formerly of San Francisco, whose work in the line of plain and decorative paper-hanging, frescoing, &c., is up to the present time unsurpassed, and on these Islands has never been equalled. For house painting jobs first-class mechanics only will be employed. In future patrons can depend upon my filling every order on the most scientific basis known to the trade.

The Sign Painting and Lettering department will be permanently presided over by Mr. GEO. STRATMEYER, (further comment unnecessary.)

P.S.—Send for designs of frescos for ceiling and cornices, something new, and if you want any glass put in call at
